DIRECT AID PROGRAM

DAP 2024/25

The Australian High Commission’s Direct Aid Program (DAP) is now open for applications.

What is the Direct Aid Program?

The Direct Aid Program (DAP) is a small grants program administered by the Australian High Commission in Kiribati. The program aims to support projects with a strong development focus which are designed to benefit the whole community. We encourage projects in the areas of community and/or rural development, education, gender equality, health and disability, sport, youth, human rights, the environment, economic empowerment, agriculture and ad hoc humanitarian relief. The DAP grant can give a maximum of $20,000 for each project.

What sorts of projects does Australia fund?

- Projects that aim at achieving practical and tangible outcomes of high development impact.
- Projects that have a direct, practical and immediate impact, including capacity building programs in areas of governance and human rights engagement.
- Projects where applicants and their communities make a contribution in labour, materials, transport or cash.
- Sporting activities.
- Projects that enhance educational and cultural exchanges and people to people links.
- Projects that are achievable and have sustainable outcomes.

What projects that are not eligible for DAP support?

- Projects that give grants or micro-credit schemes or projects that involve the return of money, or commercial ventures.
- Purchase of major assets, for example cars and boats.
- Australian or overseas study tours.
- International travel.
- Sponsorship of major sporting tournaments or cultural displays that do not have a clear developmental benefit.
- Staff salaries.
- Routine, recurring running costs and administrative expenses including office rental and utility costs, spare parts, routine maintenance.

Who is eligible for DAP support?

- Small groups, Church Communities, Villages
- Non-Government Organisations, Island Councils, Churches

The deadline for applications is 5pm Friday 17 January 2025.
